CAUTION.—We beg leave to caution purchasers of our choice OLD MONONGAHELA WHISKIES against the deception and petty fraud which is practiced by certain parties in this city and in Baltimore, who have appropriated to them elves exact copies of the Star Brands. long used and designed by us to distinguish our Old Whiskeys. We can assure our friends and customers, that the unrivalled quality, everywhere acknowledged, of our choice OLD WHISKIES, cannot be equalled by these ingenious invaders of our rights.

Our new establishment, Gibsonton Minas, the Monongabela River, gives us unequalled faci ties for making Whiskey of the choicest kind, from malted and kiln-dried grain. Purchasers of our Old Whiskies will please to notice, the words GIBSONTON MILLS and JOHN GIBsox, Soxs & Co., are inserted in the new Brands which we now adopt: and we doem it a duty to our customers and ourselves, to give notice, that we will prosecute and expose any person or person who may hereafter copy or use our Brands. MISCELLANEOUS READING. CHARITY AND GOOD SPIRITS.

Howard, the great philanthropist, was subject to great depression of spirits. Had he given way to them, he would probably have died a melancholy madman years before he part of those in Georgia, under the management of Messrs. Gregory & Maury, of Wilmington, Dela-He declared that the best remody he found ware, we have deemed it expedient to change the name of our firm, on and after January 1st, 1859, for low spirits was to put on his hat and go to that of WOOD, EDDY & CO., who will here out and find a poor family in sickness and after have the management of the Sparts Academy wretchedness, whose wants he could in some way contribute to relieve. It was under this kind of penalty, if he relaxed, that he spent his days. Winter is the season when many are doing much good among the poor and distressed, when many feel the damp, dark, sunless days and the close of the year depressing them, even in the midst of prosperity, and > for thus promoting their own happiness and that of those around them. The remedy is a more natural one than most conceive. The sight of real wretchedness must make a reflecting person ashamed of those imaginary sorrows over which so many brood.
